

Karen Fischbach

During Karen's career she has held high level, Program and Project Management roles, across various Government Departments and most recently (since 2013) with non-government organisations. During this time Karen experienced immense success delivering successful projects and recognition for her contributions to front-line disaster management protocols. Karen's extensive career has evolved and now allows her to share her experience and knowledge as a Consultant and Educator in Project Management.

Affiliations/Awards

Member, Australian Institute of Project Management

Relevant Qualifications and Training

- Completed Master of Arts in Leading Innovation and Change
- Advanced Diploma of Program Management
- Certified Practising Project Director
- Certificate IV Training and Assessment
- Advanced Diploma Project Management
- Prince2 Foundation
- ITSM - Foundation Certificate in IT-Service Management
- Graduate Certificate in Professional Accounting
- Advanced Diploma of Business, Accounting (Associate Degree)

Professional Achievements

- Nominated Telstra Businesswoman of the Year award by a Queensland Government unit for work in establishing and leading a State-wide Business Support Team and introducing quality management to the finance, Procurement and business support processes.
- Developed the first External Medical Model for Hospital in the Home in Queensland
- Developed the first external Pharmacy model in Australia with a National Pharmaceutical Company Director for use in Hospital in the Home
- Master of Arts in Leading Innovation and Change. Dissertation title "Assessing whether the Learning Program uses innovations to deliver an integrated vocational education training program to senior secondary school students."